BEAD.

The seasons weave their ancient dance, The restless ocean ebbs and flows, The world rolls on tarough day and dark, Regardless of our joys or woes!

Still up the breezy Western slopes The reaper girls, like apples brown, Bend singing to their gleeful toil, And sweep the golden harvest down.

Still, where the slanting sunlight gilds The boles of cedar and of pine, Chants the lone blackbird from the brake, With melancholy voice divine. Still all about the mossy tracks

Hums at his darg the woodward bee; Still fitfully the corn-crake's note Comes to me from the upland lea;

Still round the forest bower she loved, The woodbine trails its rich festoons; The slumbrous poppies burst and tall Beneath the silent autumn moons. Still round her lattice, perched aloof,

In sunny shade of thatched caves, The jasmine clings, with yearning pale And withers in its shroud of leaves. Still round the old familiar porch

Her cherished roses blush and And fill the sunny air with balm, And strew their petals year by year, Nor here within, one touch of change ! The footstool-the embroidered chair-

The books-the arras on the wall-The harp—the music—all are there. No touch of change! I close my eyes-It cannot be she comes no more !

I hear the rustling of her dress; I hear her footstep on the floor. I feel her breath upon my brow:

I teel her kiss upon my cheek: Down, phantoms of the buried past! Down, or my heavy heart must break.

SOUTHERN STATES AND REBEL DEBI.

Secretary Seward's Report. Secretary Seward has made a report on the provisions concerning the Rebel debt contained in the laws and ordinances of the States lately in rebeilion. as follows:-NORTH CAROLINA.

On the 19th of October, 1865, there was ratified in the Convention of North Carolina an ordinance recognizing the just debts of North Carolina, and prohibiting the payment of debts created or in-curred in aid of the late Rebellion. Section two ordains that all debts and obligations created or incurred by the State in aid of the late Rebellion, directly or indirectly, are void, and no general assembly of this State shall have power to assume or provide for the payment of the same, or any portion thereof; nor shall any general assembly of this State have power to assume or provide for the payment of any portion of the deuts or obliga-tions created or incurred, directly or indirectly, by the late so called Confederate States, or by its agents or under its authority.

SOUTH CAROLINA, The following report of the Committee on Federal Relations in the Senate of South Carolina was agreed to by that body, on the 20th of December, 1865, and by the House of Representatives of South Carolina, on the 21st of December, 1865:-

by the House of Representatives of South Carolina, on the 21st of December, 1805;—

The [Committee on Federal Relations to whom was referred the message of his Excenency the Governor, communicating the correspondence between the Provisional Governor and the Fresident of the Unite States and the Hon. William H Seward, Secretary of State in reference, to the war debt of this State, respectivity report:—That while this General Assembly, in common with all the people of the State, entertain no sentiments er purposes not endrely loyal to the Government of the United States, and are most carnestly desirous of pursuing such a course of action as may restore the alemated confluence of all parties in the sincerity with which this declaration is made, yet the committee are unable to procure from the pape's before the senate such information as is necessary to any definite recommendation on the subject. The attention of the Convention was not called to the matter, and the Comptrol er-General, in his annual report to the General Assembly, has bot so distinguished between the items of the public debt as to enable the committee to determine what portion of the same falls within the suggestion of his Excellency the President, that the state shall disavow the "debts and obligations which have been assumed in her name in the vain a tempt to subvert the Union." With a view, therefore, to obtain the necessary information, the committee recommend that the Comptroler-General, in his annual report to the next session of the General Assembly, and make a report of the public debt of the State, specifying the purpose for which and the time when each item was contracted; and that he report what description of persons hold the securities of the State, specifying the purpose for which and the time when each item was contracted; and that he report what description of persons hold the securities of the State, specifying the purpose for which and the time when each item was contracted; and that he report what description of persons hold the

In the Convention of the State of Georgia during the month of November, was adopted an ordinance to render buil and void all debts of this State created or the purpose of carrying on the late war against he United States. It is ordained that all the debts contracted or incurred by the State of Georgia, either as a separate State or as a member of the late partnership or confederacy of states, sty. d the Confederate states of America, for the purpose of carrying on the late war of secession against the United States of America. rica, or for the purpose of a ding, abetting, or pro-moting said war in any Way, directly or indirectly, be and the same are hereby declared nun and void; and the Legislature is nereby prohibited forever from in any way acknowledging or paying the same debts or any part the eot, or from passing any law for that purpose, or to secure or provide for the said debt, or any part thereof, by any appropriation of money, property, stocks, funds, or assets of any kind, to that object.

Section 2 ordains, inasmuch as the annual income of the State before and during said war, from taxation and other sources of revenue, were amply sufficient for the support of the ordinary civil govern-ment of the State, and for the payment of all its ex-penses incident to a state of peace and a the ex-traordinary expenses which led to the creation of a debt were offsprings and results of the war, it is therefore the judement, ordinance, and decree of this convention, that all the debts of the State incurred during said war shall be considered, held, and treated as debts necurred for carrying on the war: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall pre-vent any Legis atuse hereafter to assemble from making appropriations of money for the payment of any claim against the State originating after the 19th January, 1861 when its all be made clearly to appear that seuch cam was founded upon a consideration disconnected with any purpose of aiding or assisting the prosecution of the late war against the Thrice States and not needlental to a state of war. United States, and not incidental to a state or war Section 3 ordains that all bills, bonds, notes, or evidences of debt whatever, issued by the State, pay-able only in Confederate currency, or on a contingency or contingencies which have never happened, and can now never happen, have ceased to be debts at all, either in whole or part, and are hereby wholly prohibited from being paid, even though originally issued for other purposes than that of carrying on the said war, or aiding or establishing it, directly or indirectly.

ALABAMA. On the 28th of September there was adopted in the state Convention of Alabama an ordinance de claring the war debt void, and for other purposes. Section I ordains that all debts or ated by the State of Alabama in aid of the late war, directly or indirectly are hereby declared void; and the tiene ral Assembly of the State stall have no authority and they are hereby torbidden, to ratify the same or any part thereof.
Section 2 ordains that the General Assembly of the state shall have no authority, and they are hereby forbidden, to assume or make any provision for the payment of any portion of the debts contracted or incurred directly or indirectly by the Confederate States, or by its agents, or by its

FLOBIDA. On the 6th of November, 1865, there was 'done in

On the 6th of November, 1865, there was "done in open convention" an ordinance in relation to the State treasury notes, which ordinance that all state treasury notes i sued, and all other liabilities contracted by the State of Florida, on or after the 10th of October, A. D. 1861, except such liabilities as may be due to the seminary and zohoo! funds, such other liabilities as as a provided for by this constitution be and are declared void, and the General Assembly shall have no power to provide for the payment of the same or any part thereof.

On the 7th of November, 1865 there was done in open convention an ordinance in relation to State liabilities which ordains that the ordinance in relation to State liabilities and treasury notes shall not be construed to invalidate, impair, or make void any bena fide contract or liability of the State of Forida incurred or undertaken prior to the date of the ordinance of secession: Provided, That this ordinance shall not apply to any claims which have here-totor been declared fraudulent or have been rejected by the State.

Mississippi.

MISSISSIPPI. On the 22d of August, 1865, there was adopted in On the 22d of August, 1855, there was adopted in the Constitutional Convention of the State of Mis sissippi an ordinance in relation to the ordinance of sece-sion and other ordinances and resolution adopted by a tormer convention, field in the city of Jackson on the 7th of January, 1861, and on the 25th day of March, 1861, provides in the last paragraph of section two, that an ordinance bearing no date, entitled "An ordinance to raise means for the defense of the State," and an ordinance passed march 29, 1861, entitled "Supplemental to an ordinance cutiled 'An ordinance to raise means for the defense of the State,'" are intended to be left by this Convention for such action on the same as the people of the State by their Legislature may deem it right and proper to take, having in view the honor and prosperity of the State.

On the 31st of October, 1865, there was approved in the Legislature of the state of Mississippi the following resolution:—Resolved, That the Ireasurer be, and he is hereby ordered not to pay out any money a now remaining or that may hereafter be received in the freasury of the State, unless especially ordered by the Legislature, until further orders.

Upon a careful examination of the printed laws of the State of Mississippi in possession of this department, it does not appear that the Treasurer has been ordered to pay any part of the debt incurred in aid of the late Rebellion.

TEXAS. In the Constitutional Convention of the State of Texas, in the year 1805, was adopted an ordinance declaring the war gebt void, and for other par-poses.

Section 1 ordains that all debts created by the State of Texas in and of the late war, directly or indirectly, are hereby declared null and void; and the Legislature shall have no authority, and they are hereby torbiden to ratif, the same, or to assume or provide for the payment of the same, or any part

Section 2 ordains that the Legislature of this State shall have no authority, and are hereby foreidden to assume or make any provision for the payment of any portion of the debts contracted or incurred, directly or indirectly, by the Confederate States, or directly or indirectly, by the Confederate States, or by its aports or by its authority.

Section 8 ordains that the Legislature of this State is a 1 have no authority, and are hereby forbidden to assume or make any provision for the payment of surportion of the debts contracted or incurred, or warrants issued by this State, from the 28th day of January, 1861, until the 5th day of August, 1865, except warrants issued in payment of services ren-cered, or liabilities incurred, before the said 28th day of January, 1861.

HONORABLE.-The Inverness Courier, a Scotch paper, has the following:-"In 1854 a gentleman named Donald Macleod, a farmer, if we mistake not, lo-t a pocket-book in Portree containing all his money, and being unwilling to meet his creditors penniless, he emigrated to the United States. There, it appears, he has been successful in amassing a fortune, and having now, after a lapse of twelve years, returned to his native land, he has given instructions to pay with interest all claims against him."
